Grade school election scheduled

Search continues for superintendent

Within the next few months Antioch Grade School District 34 is expected to have a new superintendent and perhaps at least one new school board member.

The search is still on for a superintendent to replace Henry Meyer, who is leaving the post at the end of the school year.

The Illinois Association of School Boards is screening all applicants and early in March is expected to submit six final candidates for the local board's consideration.

AN ELECTION WILL BE held on Saturday, Apr. 8, to fill two vacancies on the District 34 board. The terms of Robert Kelley and Milo Bailey are expiring and the election will be for two three-year terms.

Speculation is that Mr. Kelley may run for re-election but that Mr. Bailey may not.

Candidates can pick up petitions at the Upper Grade School between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. on or after Monday, Jan. 30.

Petitions must be filed between Feb. 22 and Mar. 17.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the District 34 board will be held next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at Oakland school. The board will review bids with architect Doug Pekkarinen.

Life-safety work is planned at the school, in addition to renovation and enlargement of the library resource area. A regular board meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. at Oakland next Tuesday.

The new K-5 (kindergarten through fifth grade) school to be built near the Upper Grade School is expected to be completed by August of 1979.

Bids will be sought in June and construction should begin in the summer. The new school is part of the bond referendum passed last spring.

RTA regional affairs officer for McHenry county; Keith Ryan, the officer for Lake County; Laddie Korecek, who represented the Antioch Savings and Loan Association at the meeting, and Mayor Michael J. Haley.

RTA tries to please Antioch

The Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) hopes to change its image in Antioch on Monday, Feb. 13.

That's when RTA buses will begin providing service from Channel Lake and Oakwood Knolls to downtown Antioch.

From here, buses will take riders to Lake Villa, Lindenhurst, Grayslake and Fox Lake, connecting with commuter trains and also with buses to Waukegan and the College of Lake County.

THE BUSES WILL RUN approximately every two hours between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. They will circle the Antioch business district. Schedules are available at the Girl burned in freak accident

A 15-year-old Oakwood Knolls girl, Noreen Liebert, is in St. Therese hospital with second degree burns following a car fire Saturday at Bernie's Corner, North Ave. and Main St.

Noreen was in the back seat of the car when a freak accident happened.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Liebert Sr. and her brother, William Jr., had driven to Mike's Happy Gas station to buy a gallon of gasoline.

When William Jr. put the can of gas in the back seat, he set it on a car battery that was on the floor. The can struck both battery posts, causing a spark and explosion.

ACCORDING TO POLICE Officer Stan Revell, the people in the car immediately got out but Noreen's slacks were on fire. Her mother caught her, police said, and rolled her in the snow to put out the flames.

That was at 4:13 p.m., when Revell got the call, and he reached the scene a minute later.

Revell gave his fire extinguisher to Bob Cunningham, an Antioch volunteer fireman who was there, and Cunningham tried to put out the car fire.

Revell then went to aid Noreen. He put the girl and her mother in his squad car and called the police desk to have

Blood donors needed for Saturday

Reports from St. Peter's parish "blood bank chair-ladies," Ellen Ipsen and Gloria Grealis, indicate that the quota will be met at the Red Cross blood drawing to be held on Saturday in St. Peter's social center from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

A few extra donors are needed to insure the quota of 180 pints.

"Not everyone pledged will be able to donate," said Mrs. Ipsen. "Anyone suffering from the flu or cold symptoms will be deferred as a donor. Also, anyone taking antibiotics, heart medication, or cancer drugs, or recently exposed to infectious disease will also be deferred."

"There is a definite shortage of blood available in our area, as evidenced by recent pleas in the newspapers, on radio and TV for donors," she said.

"You may have wished to donate, but because of the time needed to go to a local hospital, you have put it off. There is no need to put it off any longer. Just call me at 395-2884, or Gloria Grealis at 395-1643, to make your appointment for Saturday, right here in town in St. Peter's social center."

"The morning appointments are booked solid, but we will be happy to book your appointment for the afternoon," said Mrs. Ipsen.

"Do not let the fact that you are not a member of St. Peter's parish stop you from calling. Your donation will still assure fulfillment of your needs, and those of your family, for one full year," she added.

THE TOWN CRIER

While we are enjoying winter at its worst here in Antioch, some of our best friends are down south having fun.

Just the other day, 16-year old Nathaniel Crosby (Bing's son) was playing golf with Arnold Palmer, Bob Hope and former President Gerald Ford. (Notice how I listed them in order of importance? No, I'm just kidding, I think Gerald Ford is an outstanding man. Imagine, an honest President.)

Anyway, Hope had a problem on the 14th hole, where he plunked his second shot into a bunker protecting the green. Five times he tried to blast out, with Arnie standing on the edge of the bunker offering advice. Five times the ball caught the overhanging edge of the trap and rolled back into the sand.

"Got any other ideas?" Hope asked Palmer, who was convulsed with laughter. Hope then reached down and flipped the ball behind his back, onto the green. He two-putted for a 10.

Ford hooked a shot into the coastal rocks on 18 - only to watch, amazed, as the ball ricocheted back into the middle of the fairway.

"You know those rocks personally?" asked Hope.

"That's what happens when you live right," said Ford.

Hope, who swings a sweet fairway wood ("Hit the cart path, you devil!"), finally became weary at the 15th, commandeering a security man's golf cart. ("How many years can they give you for stealing a cart?")

Forget Dear Abby, Just Ask Gerard

By JERRY PFARR

It has always been disturbing to me that women have a monopoly in the "advice to the lovelorn" field.

Some of those sticky situations require the cool, detached and objective observations that only a man is capable of making.

So, with some reluctance, I have decided to share and answer some of the personal mail I have received, which previously has gone unpublished.

DEAR GERARD:

My mother-in-law hates me. She is constantly taking my wife's side in our arguments and harping at me just because I bowl four nights a week, play poker with the boys, fish all summer and go hunting whenever I get a chance. What can I do to square things with my mother-in-law?

"Bullseye Bob"

Bug Tussle, Tex.

Dear Bullseye:

Take her along on your next hunting trip.

DEAR GERARD:

My wife ignores me completely. She spends all of her time either glued to the TV set, reading movie and fan magazines, or raving about the charms of Robert Redford, Burt Reynolds, Rock Hudson, and Paul Newman. The only time she talks to me is when she orders me to carry out the garbage.

Dominated,
Keokuk, Iowa

Dear Dom:

Let Redford, Reynolds, Hudson and Newman carry out the garbage.

DEAR GERARD:

My husband treats me like a slave. He won't help with the dishes, and won't buy me a dishwasher. Even though I do most of the housework, he insists on having me in a pretty dress, with the fireplace crackling and soft music playing when he comes home for dinner. The other night I wanted to watch Lawrence Welk, but he turned on the baseball game. I don't know how to change him.

Eve

Loves Park, Ill.

My Dear Young Lady:

You obviously overlook the fact that you promised to love, cherish and obey your husband. You were put on this earth to serve him. Remember, he is the lord and master. His job is to make the living, and yours is to make the living worthwhile. Apparently you need more help than I can offer in this brief space. Please send for my free book, "He's Okay, You're Not Okay." Enclose $39.98 for handling.

DEAR GERARD:

My husband is a beast. Let me start by telling you how I met him. He was on top of the Empire State Building, swatting down airplanes ...

Name Withheld,
Kokomo, Ind.

Dear Mrs. Kong:

I am sorry I had to cut my letter short, but that was really a nasty thing to say about your husband. I am trying to make this a high class column. Please don't write again.

I WANT TO apologize to the hundreds who have written to me, asking for advice and solutions to their problems.

But, look, I simply don't have time to help everybody. If I can't get around to answering your letter, you will just have to fend for yourself.

What to do if you fall through ice

Ice is a major source of recreation. Skating, sledding and fishing are fun on frozen farm ponds, lakes and streams.

But ice can be treacherous.

Its strength depends on thickness, air temperature, snow cover, depth of water under the ice, and water fluctuations and currents. Falls through ice often result in drowning.

TO DETERMINE HOW THICK ice is cut a hole in it. These ice thicknesses are required for safety:

- One-inch ice is unsafe.
- Generally, two inches will support one person.

Three inches will support a small group in single file. Four of five inches are safe for most winter sports except snowmobiling.

IF A PERSON DOES FALL through the ice, the initial shock probably will take his breath away. But you must force yourself to remain as calm as possible.

Extend your arms over the edge of the ice. Getting a hold may be difficult with numb fingers, so use a sharp object such as a knife, belt buckle or car keys to help you. Pull yourself up and kick your feet hard. Roll away from the break. Don't stand up on the ice until you are well away from the hole.

Heating Costs Can Be Reduced

If you use gas for heating—and nearly 35 million households do—you can save energy and control rising energy costs.

Here are a few energy savings tips from the American Gas Association:

- 1) 24-hour thermostat setback to 65 degrees F in the daytime, and even lower at night, during the winter months.
- 2) Don't block air vents.
- 3) Draw drapes at night, open them on sunny days.
- 4) Caulk window and door frames; use weather stripping.
- 5) Adequate ceiling insulation (six to eight inches) cuts heat loss significantly.
- 6) Install storm doors and windows. Low cost plastic storm windows are available in many areas.
- 7) Insulate ducts in spaces, which are not heated.

Agift for the firemen...

Antioch's fire chief, Tod Maplethorpe (left), accepts a donation from Vern Thelen, president of the Rotary Club of Antioch. It's a carousel slide projector which is controlled by a cassette tape recorder. "We're going to use it for training programs... fire prevention programs in schools and things like that," said Maplethorpe. "We might also be able to use it in fire investigation work. We certainly appreciate what the Rotarians have done for us... they asked one day what we could use and we decided the projector and tape recorder would be practical... so they bought it for us."

Pipe organ to be dedicated

A total of 731 pipes will sound for the first time publicly at Faith Lutheran Church on Sunday. An 11-rank pipe organ has been installed and will be dedicated at an evening service to begin at 7 p.m.

Mr. Lawrence Marowski of Jefferson, Wis. will serve as guest organist for the song service. The public is invited.

The organ was purchased from a church in Racine, Wis., last April. In June, members of Faith removed the instrument piece by piece - numbered and cataloged each item - and brought it back to Antioch.

For four weeks members opened chests, scraped and replaced worn leathers and restored the units.

Many more weeks of work followed: preparing a pipe chamber, installing air ducts, locating air chests and countless other things.

One problem was the necessity of cutting a cable containing approximately 200 wires and restoring them to their proper position.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mossman of Russell shared their knowledge and materials with the members of Faith Lutheran and provided the encouragement to bring the project to successful completion, church members said.

Many Pets Have Been Heroic

A St. Bernard named Barry saved the lives of 40 people lost in snowdrifts in the Swiss Alps. He didn't have a keg of brandy around his neck, however, but saved them by barking, going for help, and leading them out of danger.

An eagle named Old Abe was sworn into the 8th Wisconsin regiment back in 1861. Old Abe took part in 36 battles and 50 skirmishes, each time flying above the troops and screaming his war cry. It's said that he would grab one end of the American flag in his beak and help carry it through the streets.

America's pets - an estimated 41 million dogs and 23 million cats actually help save people money. That's because manufacturers of commercial pet foods use meat by-products and grain and grain by-products that people don't usually eat. If pet food manufacturers didn't use these meats, the loss to the meat, poultry and seafood industry would be about $200 million. It would have to be made up in increased food costs to consumers. And the industry's purchases of grain and grain by-products bring a significant income to America's farmers, points out the Pet Food Institute.

20 students earn honors at Emmons

Twenty Emmons Grade School students were named to the honor roll for their scholastic achievements during the second nine-weeks grading period. Superintendent John J. Kakacek announced.

They are:

Eighth Grade: Ann Bodin, Chuck Duha, Sue Ochs, Scott Poulter, Steve Sheedlo, Robert Thain, Kris Vogt and Chris Willems.

Seventh Grade: Steve Haase, Tim Hartokolis, Luke Kuligoski, Carrie Romie, Craig Sheedlo, Carolyn Stanley and Shelly Volling.

Sixth Grade: Clay Hamlin, Kendall Kirkpatrick, Eddie Kuligoski, Julie Merlo and Rod Steiskal.

In order to be on the honor roll, a student must have at least 2 "A"s and 2 "B"s or 3 "A"s and 1 "C" in the four academic subjects. In character traits, no grade of "U" is allowed for the honor roll. In order to receive a year-end award, a student must be on the honor roll three times.

Jan. 31 is deadline for license plates

The deadline for purchasing 1978 passenger car license plates is Tuesday, Jan. 31. William E. Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch, reminded area residents yesterday.

The State Bank is an authorized agent for the office of the Illinois Secretary of State, issuing auto license plates to applicants. Pre-printed renewal forms are a standard requirement.

License plates are issued immediately at the bank and Mr. Brook urged motorists to avoid the last minute rush expected at the end of this month.

Century 21 firm opens new offices

Century 21, Michael Warren & Co., celebrated the grand opening of its new real estate offices at 974 Main St. by holding an all-day open house last Saturday and Sunday.

Prior to a ribbon-cutting ceremony an informal breakfast was held. Those present included Mike Haley, village mayor; Dan Knox, Lake County Board of Realtors president; Bernard Fosmark, pastor of the Antioch, Evangelical Free Church; Mr. and Mrs. George Bartlett, former owners of the Jefferson gas station which was remodeled as a real estate office; former mayor and Mrs. Bob Wilton; Frances Van Haecke, office manager; Mary Matteoni, sales manager, and Mike Warren, president and owner.

Mr. Bartlett remarked about the early history of the property noting that Wilton St., formerly Quality St., was once nicknamed Pig Tail Alley.

John Peters presented the Century 21 key award for "excellent office appearance."

Staff members greeted more than 200 guests. They toured the new facilities which included a reception area, three conference rooms, a private office area, a large associates' work center, kitchenette, sign room and off-street parking lot.

Warren & Co. associates are Rita Dituro, Fred Johnson, Justine Lubkeman, Edna Dalgaard, Peggy O'Neill, Mike Fassbinder, Darlene Morris, Lucille Ellis, Benny Kiefer, Roger Schufenburg, Frances Van Haecke and Mary Matteoni.

village hall. The cost will be 60c a ride and 30c for senior citizens.

The buses will be timed to reach transfer points simultaneously.

Mayor Mike Haley said the Antioch bus service, which is being paid for by residents' tax money to the RTA, is a result of village officials attending all of the public meetings held in Lake County by the RTA.

"I THINK WE GOT across our point that our local transportation needs are buses that bring people from outside the Antioch business district into the Antioch business district," Haley said.

"We don't necessarily need buses to other communities," the mayor said. "The Channel Lake and Oakwood Knolls extensions to the RTA schedule are directly the result of our input at RTA meetings. We also asked for extensions to Grass Lake and Little Silver Lake and hope they will become a reality at a future date."

ONE OF THE APPROXIMATELY 40 persons who attended last Thursday's RTA "listening post" at the village hall, Frank ReCupido, said:

"I'm protesting the fact that they are bypassing Grass Lake Rd., with all of its population."

Keith Ryan, RTA regional affairs director for Lake County, was more than willing to listen to suggestions but said he'd have to pass them along to the Chicago office.

Mayor Haley smiled and said:

"I suspect the RTA will make quite a thing of its Feb. 13 opening here. I think they'd like to replace our 'waiting for the RTA' sign with one that says 'the RTA is here.' Maybe Channel 7 will come out again to televise the event."

TONIGHT (WEDNESDAY), one of the most outspoken opponents of the RTA, state representative Cal Skinner of McHenry County, will chat with WGN's Bob Collins on his radio show from 7 to 9 p.m.

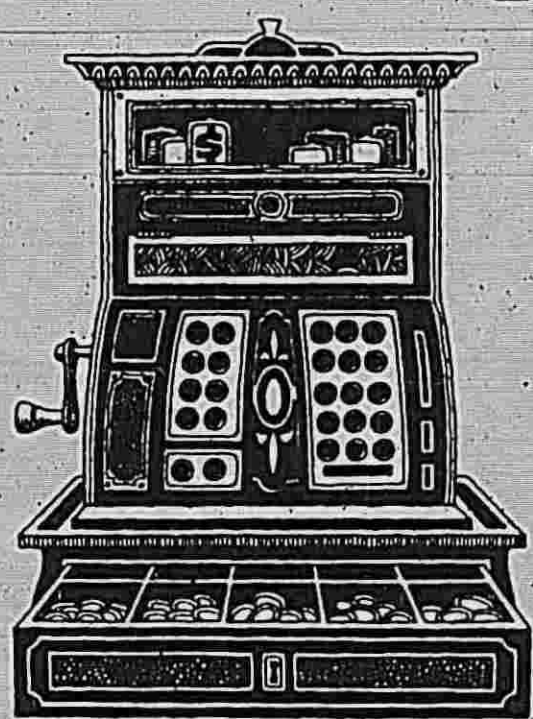

Skinner said that he and Collins will discuss "what can be done about the Regional Transportation Authority, who wins and who loses from the new 5 percent RTA gas tax and the other taxes people are forced to pay to subsidize bus and train riders, plus any other topics that Collins, or anyone who calls in, raise."

Decorate with pots of crocuses

About mid-January most of us are so tired of the cold, dark, icy days of winter that spring can't come soon enough.

Spring, that colorful, cheerful, wonderful time of the year when everything is vibrant and alive again. Well, why not bring some of that sparkling season into your home right now during the winter with pots of crocuses, spring's first flower.

Yes, pots of crocuses, in a variety of colors, are available at florists now and will brighten any room, whether they are standing alone or intermingled with green foliage plants.

Rainbow of colors

You can select crocuses in almost any shade of purple from the deeper hues to lavender, and in yellows and in whites. To add a splash of spring color throughout your home, select six or more pots of crocuses, each containing six to 10 blooms, and place them in various rooms in the house.

Crocuses mingle well with green plants whether on a plant stand or in a planter. Make sure they are located so that they won't be hidden by the foliage. That touch of color will enhance the lush greenery.

Conversation piece

Other attractive arrangements for crocuses are in a copper pot, a bowl or a glass container. In decorative containers they make excellent centerpieces for the dining room table. They become conversation pieces, especially when guests come in out of the cold snowy, winter weather and see bright spring crocuses adorning the table.

Crocuses should be purchased when they are in the tight bud stage, preferably before any color is showing. Then, you will have the advantage of watching them come to life in vivid hues as the buds slowly open to full bloom.

As with many bulb flowers they require very little care. Just make sure the soil is kept moist and place them in any light airy spot away from the direct rays of the sun.

In case you aren't familiar with it, editor J. Baxter Newgate conducts a contest which is entered by people all over the country.

The responses included:

Feb. 23 - Benedict Arnold's Birthday: Americans swear allegiance to foreign states, burn flags and divulge national secrets.

Mar. 31 - National Non Day: A day kept free from any celebrations. In observance of this day, banks will stay open and mail will be delivered.

ANOTHER RECENT CHALLENGE was to suggest a new toy that we're certain not to see.

One wit suggested "The Hare Krishna Game: Complete

Also: "Educational Jigsaw Puzzle: Comes with three missing pieces and five pieces that don't fit anywhere. Puzzle is designed to prepare the child for adulthood."

With that introduction we must mention that Bonnie Litchfield had a birthday Tuesday. We're a day late wishing her a happy birthday. We never reveal a woman's age, but we remember at the recent reunion of Antioch High School's class of 1967, Bonnie was honored as the youngest member of her graduating class.

Linda Walker also had a birthday yesterday, insisting it was her "golden birthday" ... in other words, she was 24 on the 24th. You can believe that if you want to.

Bill Georgeson, owner of the World Famous Village Pub and part of the committee to select a new coach for the Chicago Bears, will celebrate his birthday this Saturday, the 28th. Jane Verkest is celebrating on Friday, the 27th, and Ev Oftedahl on Sunday, the 29th.

OOPS ... I ALMOST FORGOT ... our good friend Lenora Price is celebrating her birthday today, the 25th. Lenora, formerly of Antioch, is now living in Arizona.

Looking outside at Antioch's January weather, Arizona sounds mighty good right now.

All about town ...

We sure are glad to see George Hiropoulos back at the Antioch Restaurant. George was in a car accident New Year's Day and was out of commission for a while.

Even though he still has a cast on his arm and won't be doing any of the cooking yet, his assistance in the kitchen will be welcome.

Speedy recovery, George ... you're needed back in full swing.

THIS THURSDAY thru Tuesday the Little Nut Hut & Sweet Shoppe will celebrate its grand opening.

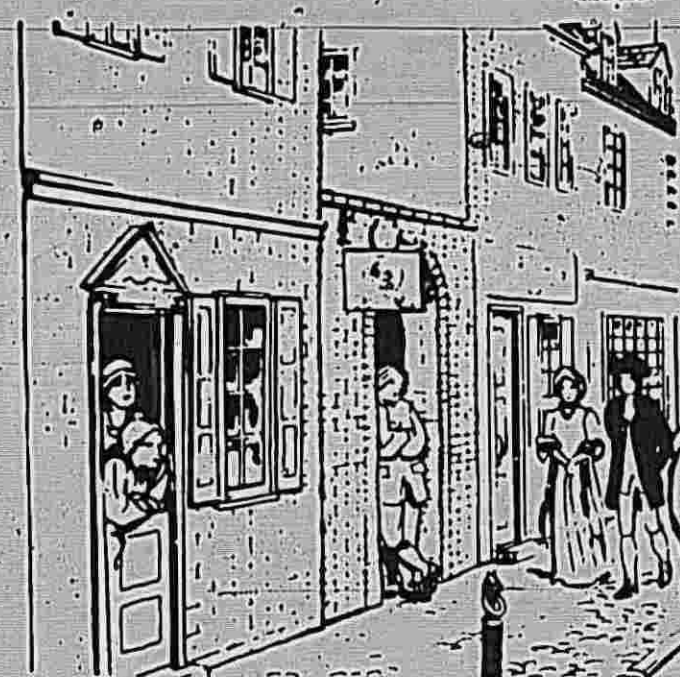

Partners Ron and Sophie Lech and Betty Newer are planning lots of surprises and fun for all. Try to stop in and be sure to register for the digital watch.

PETTI BROS. TV and Appliances, 400 Lake St. (King's Drug store's former location) will be holding its grand opening Friday and Saturday, Feb. 3 and 4.

The new TV store will feature sales and service of RCA and Zenith products and, after spring, will carry a variety of appliances.

Sam Petti, owner, has another store in Winnetka and can guarantee experience after 24 years of service in Cook County. Ron Kruse, store manager, is also very qualified and looking forward to serving the Antioch area.

Not only is Antioch getting a well-needed TV and appliance store, but Sam is an avid golfer. He shoots in the low 80s, sometimes in the 70s ... so some of you guys will have to get him out on the course this year. (Maybe we can even get him to enter the Antioch Open.)

IF YOU HAVEN'T SEEN Neil Simon's "The Last of the Red Hot Lovers," this is the final weekend the play will be presented by the American Repertory Theatre Systems at Andre's Steak House in Richmond.

Reservations are necessary for the dinner-theatre package, so call (815) 678-2671 for an evening of pure enjoyment.

The Board of Directors of Antioch Savings and Loan Association voted a cash dividend of $2.35 per share for the year ended December 31, 1977 for a total of $287,875.00, President Thomas J. Kelly announced. Mr. Kelly added that this was a 96 percent increase over the prior year's dividend of $1.20. He mentioned that the Association's assets total $52,700,000.00, a 33 percent increase over the prior year's total of $39,500,000.00. Mr. Kelly pointed to strong savings inflows of $5.9 million for 1977 and loan sales of $1.8 million for this increased profitability.

He predicted that savings flows would not be as strong in 1978, but there should be sufficient funds available to enable Antioch Savings to continue fulfilling its primary function of supporting home ownership and construction in northwestern Lake County and southern Wisconsin.

Annual VIP event set for Apr. 15

Antioch's 10th annual VIP dinner-dance will be held Saturday, Apr. 15, at St. Peter's parish.

Selection of the person or persons to be honored will be made soon. Ballots will appear in the Antioch News and also in St. Peter's parish bulletin.

The deadline for nominations is Sunday, Feb. 12.

Previously honored at Antioch VIP dinners were Jim McMillen, W.C. Petty, William E. Brook, Rudy Eckert, Albert L. Dittman, Fern Watson, Elmer and Gert Zimmerman, Herman Holbek and, last year, Hank and Ricky Apostol.

Co-chairmen of this year's event are Jim and Monika Coyle, and Ed and Marie Esser. Rev. Francis Kub of St. Peter's is moderator.

Recreation programs, play are set

Winter programs of the Antioch parks and recreation department are attracting many participants, in most cases.

Parks director Sue Koppa said there has been "a tremendous turnout for the women's exercise class, pre-school activities, cross-country skiing and young people's bowling."

"Indoor soccer and ice-less hockey programs are going quite well and have a booming attendance," she added.

TRYOUTS FOR the children's play, "Aladdin's Magic Ring," will be held from 3:30 to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 2 to 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, Charlie Brown, director, said. Tryouts are at the PM&L Theatre. Mr. Brown said the cast will include adults as well as children.

There was a poor turnout for the girls basketball class, Mrs. Koppa said. It will be started again from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 7, at Oakland school.

She also is encouraging people "to get out and get involved" in a men's recreation program on Tuesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Upper Grade School.

ALSO COMING up is a macrame class on Mondays, starting Feb. 6, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the library. A croch and knit class for persons of all ages is being held on Mondays from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

"Please call 395-2160 if you have any questions," Mrs. Koppa said. "Community interest in our programs has generally been excellent."

How's Your Head For History?

CAN YOU GUESS THE NAME OF THIS AIRLINE?

It started in 1926 when a number of small airlines—including the one that operated the world's first scheduled airline flight in 1919—merged to make one national airline. Things went up rapidly from there.

On May 1, 1926, it initiated the world's first commercial night flight.

Two years later, it became the first airline to offer food and beverages on board, served by air stewards.

It was also the world's first airline to operate a trans-Atlantic service by catapulting flying boats from steamships crossing the ocean from Europe to America on July 16, 1929. The airplanes were carried aboard the ships until they came to within flying range of their destination, then catapulted into the air to fly ahead with cargos of airmail. Later, floating air base ships were permanently stationed on the ocean, and the flying boats flew to them in stages.

In 1931, the biggest land plane of the times was among its fleet. This plane even had seats in the wings, to give passengers a unique forward view.

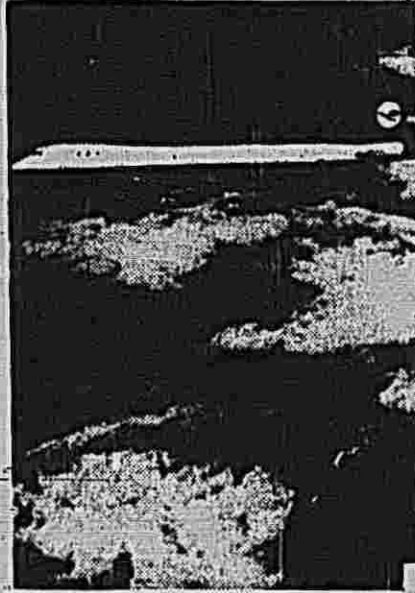

In 1934 it initiated the first regular airmail run between Europe and South America.

Although its operations were suspended in 1941, when it was reborn in 1953 it grew rapidly. It became the first airline to operate Boeing 737 jets, and by

IN 1931—World's largest plane at that time even had room for passengers in wings.

(Upper left): In 1936—Little propeller-driven airplanes were loaded through nose. (Lower left): In 1928—Stewards served food and beverages to airline passengers for first time. (Right): In 1976—Big 747 jets are still loaded through the nose.

1975 it was carrying more than 10 million passengers a year on its worldwide route network of 107 destinations in 69 countries.

Do you know what airline it is?

Answer: Give yourself credit if you guessed that the airline is Lufthansa, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

HOW WATCHES WORK

Do you know how different kinds of watches work?

When you wind a conventional mechanical watch, you are supplying the power—power stored in the mainspring and passed on to gears.

In battery-powered watches, there's not only the convenience of no-winding, but higher accuracy.

In solid state digital watches, there is a digital readout, making it quicker and easier to tell time. Also, the circuitry is different, resulting in an extremely accurate product. And because there are no moving parts there is less that needs repair.

Clearly, modern technological advances have made their way into the production of watches, making it easier for you to be certain about the exact time of day.

This train used to burn 8,000 gallons of oil per month. Just standing still.

Amtrak has to heat their passenger cars during winter even when they're sitting overnight in the yards. This keeps rest room pipes from freezing and provides passengers with cars that are comfortable when they board.

They used to heat these standing cars by keeping the diesel engines and generators running. That took a lot of oil—8,000 gallons per month for a four-car train. Counting all of Amtrak's Chicago trains, it was a major expense. And after the oil embargo, diesel fuel became more scarce, more costly.

The solution? Amtrak switched to electricity. They're now warming up these trains by literally plugging them in to a more plentiful energy source.

Electricity is plentiful here in northern Illinois, because ninety percent of it is made from coal and uranium—two fuels that are in good supply. So whenever you, or a company like Amtrak, use electricity instead of a scarce fuel, you're actually conserving that fuel for transportation and other vital energy needs.

That's why we call Commonwealth Edison electricity the "conservation energy."

And now that Amtrak heats with electricity, they conserve enough oil each month to send this one train on two round trips between Chicago and Fort Worth, Texas.

That's quite a savings over the long haul.

Commonwealth Edison
We make the conservation energy.

JV wrestlers now have 16-1 record

Antioch's junior varsity wrestlers increased their season record to 16-1 last weekend with wins over Woodstock and Jacobs.

The junior Sequoits suffered their only loss two weeks ago against conference rival Grant High School. It was the only loss Antioch's junior varsity squad has been dealt in its last 27 dual meets, extending back to last year.

THIS FRIDAY and Saturday the junior varsity will take on Wauconda, Deerfield and Lake Zurich. Coach Rich Brown hopes his team will boost its record to 19-1.

Brown said the junior varsity has received outstanding wrestling this season from a group that includes:

Glenn McCollom at 98 pounds, Rob Crowell 105, Dan Larsen 112, Bob Finn and Jeff Cannella 119, Scott Peterson and Randy Laren 126, Glenn Kaht and Bruce Mitchell 132, Vic Manninia and Chuck Bogaerts 138, Brian Biel and Kirk Sarmont 145, Ted Bessette 155, Greg Bodin 167, Mike O'Hara 185 and Mitch Lasco heavyweight.

Frosh wrestlers win by 66-3

The Antioch High School freshman wrestlers had a busy weekend, destroying Jacobs' Golden Eagles 66-3 and then losing to Woodstock's undefeated Blue Streaks 36-30.

Against Woodstock, Ted Bessette and Dan Larsen scored quick pins, as did Steve Jennrich. Jeff Canella won by a 6-0 decision and John Domkowski triumphed 6-4.

Each team won six matches but Woodstock scored the most pins, thus the most points.

AGAINST JACOBS, the Antioch freshmen enjoyed pins by Larsen, Domkowski, Tony Trajkovich, Dave Mohar, Don Purfeest and Scott Wolf.

THIS FRIDAY the freshmen wrestle against Wauconda here at 6:30 p.m.

On Saturday they travel to a rugged 12-team freshman invitational tournament at Crown High School. The preliminaries begin at 9 a.m., with quarterfinals at 11 a.m., semifinals at 1 p.m. and the championship matches at 2:30.

Wrestlers getting ready for big meets

Antioch High School's wrestlers are preparing for a crack at the conference championship and, apparently, they are preparing well.

Last weekend they whipped Woodstock 45-13 and Jacobs 39-9.

The conference tournament will be held Saturday, Feb. 4.

Right now, Antioch has an 8-1-1 record in the league and a 13-3-1 record overall.

SAID COACH TED DeROUSSE: "We know we must continue to improve to win the conference."

Double winners last weekend were Dave Unrien at 98 pounds, Jon Gibson 105, Marvin Gibson 126, Kirk Sarmont 145, Gene Lehn 155 and Rich Packert, heavyweight.

THIS FRIDAY, WAUCONDA visits Antioch for a dual meet and, on Saturday, the Sequoits travel to Lake Zurich to meet that team, plus Deerfield.

Next Tuesday night Antioch will have its last dual meet of the season here when Cary-Grove drops in.

After that, the tournament competition begins.

COACH DeROUSSE'S WRESTLERS have some remarkable records again this season.

In the won-lost column, Jon Gibson is 31-1, Marvin Gibson 25-4 and Packert 24-4.

Marvin Gibson has achieved 30 takedowns, Jon Gibson

St. Peter's teams win basketball games

St. Peter's eighth grade basketball team scored a 51-46 win over St. Mary.

High scorers were Butch Zannini and Don Mentone, each hitting 18 points.

"Special recognition goes to Keith Larson, Phil Kaht, Tim Higgins and Tony Merkel for their outstanding playing," St. Peter's coaches said.

The final score in the seventh grade game was St. Peter 32, St. Mary 20. High scorers were Andy Runyard (9), Phil Ashbacher (8) and Ed Gron (6). "An outstanding job on defense was done by Ed Gron, Gary Foley and Joe Apostol," one of the coaches said.

Antioch '5' faces South Division leader

NO, THIS ISN'T a karate class ... it's action in last Saturday's basketball victory over Jacobs' Golden Eagles. The unidentified Antioch player wasn't really kicking his opponent ... in fact, we aren't sure what he was doing. No. 34 in Antioch white is Brian Andrews, whose cool play helped preserve the Sequoits' victory.

Sequoits are 8-0 in conference

Chalk up two more wins for Antioch High's basketball team.

Coach Roger Andrews' Sequoits won by an impressive 11 points at Woodstock last Friday and then (whew!) survived a Jacobs threat here Saturday night and emerged with a 54-49 victory.

So Antioch enjoys an 8-0 record in the conference with two more assignments coming up this weekend.

THE SEQUOITS WILL TRAVEL to Wauconda (6-2) Friday night and then play at home Saturday, 8 p.m., against Lake Zurich (0-8).

The Sequoits got some help last Friday when Cary-Grove knocked off Antioch's closest rival, Warren, 67-56.

Now Antioch has a two-game lead in the North Division of the conference. Antioch is 8-0, Warren 6-2, Stevenson 4-4, Grayslake 3-5, Grant 3-5 and Round Lake 0-8.

In the South Division, Wauconda is on top with a 6-2 record, followed by Jacobs 5-3, Cary-Grove 5-3, Woodstock 4-4, Dundee 4-4 and Lake Zurich 0-8.

FRIDAY'S TRIP TO WAUCONDA will be a good test for the Sequoits. Wauconda beat Stevenson 59-50 and Round Lake 55-36 last weekend.

Wauconda's Bulldogs have a 6-2 senior forward, Brad Anthony, who poured in 21 points to spark last Friday's win over Stevenson.

While routing Round Lake last Saturday, Anthony led the Bulldogs again with 14 points.

COACH ANDREWS CALLED Antioch's win at Woodstock "a game with many moods."

The Blue Streaks excited their home fans by rushing off to a 9-1 lead over favored Antioch. But after five minutes of doing little, Antioch started to play super basketball. In the next 10½ minutes they outscored Woodstock 33-8 and had a 34-17 lead.

"Our team really played great," Coach Andrews said. "They were super on defense, displayed great team work and were a pleasure to watch."

In the second half Tracy Sodman controlled the boards and Antioch maintained a lead of at least 10 points, finally triumphing 59-48.

and John Eder caused several turnovers by the Woodstock guards. Brian also scored 14 points, following Bill Dubek who led the team with 21.

Sodman had a terrific total of 16 rebounds. Dave Gutowski and Tim Huebner came off the bench to help fashion the victory.

Coach Andrews also praised the rest of the squad for helping the starters prepare for the game, practicing all week on Woodstock's offense and pressing tactics.

ROGER ANDREWS, Antioch's varsity basketball coach, takes his 8-0 Sequoits to Wauconda Friday night for a showdown with the conference's South Division leader. Wauconda has a 6-2 record.

SATURDAY NIGHT, AGAINST Jacobs' Golden Eagles, the Sequoits were in control most of the game but the visitors rallied late in the third quarter and closed the gap to 4 and 5 points. The Sequoits previously had led by 14 points, but Sodman and Tim Huebner went out on fouls.

Also, Gutowski, who had played well in the first half, injured his hand and had to leave the game. Scott Gallagher and Roger Korjenek came off the bench and helped preserve the victory.

Jacobs' press might have bothered Antioch more in the closing minutes if Brian Andrews and his teammates hadn't kept their cool, displaying poise and getting key points down the homestretch.

DUBEK LED SCORERS again with 19 points. Tim Huebner collected 11 rebounds, Andrews 10 and Sodman 9. Coach Andrews also praised the defensive play of Eder. The coach's son, Brian, contributed 7 assists.

That sets the stage for Friday's showdown at Wauconda, an 8 o'clock game which will pit North Division leader Antioch against the South Division leader.

THE LEADING SCORER in both of Antioch's victories last weekend was Bill Dubek, right. He scored 21 points against Woodstock and 19 in the win over Jacobs.

Frosh cagers stay unbeaten in conference

Antioch's freshmen basketball team remained unbeaten in conference play by downing Woodstock 48-37. The young Sequoits are now 7-0 in the conference and 8-3 overall.

Antioch led the Blue Streaks from the beginning but didn't really take charge until the third quarter. The Sequoits shot a torrid 62 percent from the field but took only 29 shots. Eighteen turnovers kept the team from turning the game into a rout.

Balanced scoring has been a trade mark of the team and the Woodstock game was no different. Dan Maras led in scoring with 13 points, Pete Weber added 12 points, Tim Koesser 10 and John Eckert 9. Eckert helped the Sequoits dominate the boards with 10 rebounds.

IN RECENT "B" TEAM play, Antioch beat Dundee 44-33 and Woodstock 49-28 but lost to Stevenson 53-35.

Against Dundee, Eckert led in scoring with 9 points. Tim Haviland, Kevin Hassett and Jim Domkowski each had 6 points.

At Woodstock John Jackson and Dale Anderson each had 9 points and Hassett had 8. At Stevenson, Haviland led scoring with 8 points and Anderson and Domkowski each had 7.

The "B" team record is now 6-1 in conference play and 6-3 overall.

Antioch's next home game is Monday, Jan. 30, against Lake Zurich. The freshman Sequoits play at Wauconda this Saturday.

Emmons '5' beats two opponents

The Emmons Raiders toppled the Newport Braves 46-37 in the first basketball clash between the two schools.

The Raiders led by as much as 17 points in the second quarter but, with fine shooting, Newport narrowed it down to 25-13 at halftime.

Throughout the second half the point margin stayed about the same.

The Raider attack was led by Steve Sheedlo with 12 points, Alan Coons' 10 and 8 points for Bob Thain.

In the Raiders' next game, they breezed past their conference foes, the Prince of Peace Apaches, 51-22. Chris Willems had 8 of his game-high 14 points in the first half. In the third quarter the Apaches cut the lead to six before the Raiders opened with a barrage of scoring.

The Raiders played up to their potential, Coach Mike Mitchell said, outscoring their opponents 15-0 in the fourth quarter. Thain and Sheedlo contributed to the win by scoring 11 and 9 respectively.

Dan Verkeyn wins basketball contest

Dan Verkeyn has been faithfully entering the Antioch News basketball contest all season, and picking the Sequoits to win.

Last Saturday he scored his first victory in the contest, predicting that Antioch would beat Jacobs High School by five points. The score was 54-49.

So we'll be happy to send Dan a $15 gift certificate from Rittenhouse & Embree Lumber Co.

Second prize goes to Laura Stewart, who also picked Antioch over Jacobs by five points ... but Dan came closer in forecasting the tie-breaker, last Friday's 11-point victory over Woodstock.

LAURA WILL RECEIVE a $10 gift certificate from Candlelight Galleries Inc. and, incidentally, she is the family champion this week. She and her son, Harry, and her grandson, Mark, vie each week to see which is the best forecaster.

Third prize last week was won by Allan Figi of Trevor, another regular contestant. Twelve-year-old Allan predicted a four-point win over Jacobs and also came close in the tie-breaker, picking Antioch to beat Woodstock by 13 points.

Allan will receive a $5 gift certificate from the Piggy Bank Discount Store.

FOUR OTHERS TIED Allan for third-place by picking Antioch over Jacobs by six points. But they didn't come as close in the tie-breaker. The four experts were Diane Mullin, who was second the previous week; Tutts Traves, Mike Polsgrove and Mike Koss, a recent winner of the contest.

See page 17 for this week's challenge.

Upper Grade, Emmons tune up for tourney

Antioch's Upper Grade School basketball team scored a 44-38 win over non-conference rival Emmons last week.

The Upper Grade Apaches opened up a 15-0 first quarter lead before Emmons could penetrate their pressing defense.

Gordy Nasenbeny scored 7 of his 9 points in the first quarter and Matt Stevens hit for 6.

After trailing by 16 points at the half, Emmons launched a third quarter comeback with Chris Willems and Steve Sheedlo hitting from the outside.

Dean Berkiel helped the Apaches turn back the Emmons charge and finished with 12 points, sharing game honors with Sheedlo.

Nasenbeny led in rebounding with 11.

Antioch and Emmons will be two of the eight teams playing in the Antioch Invitational tournament Feb. 3-4. Emmons won last year's tournament, beating Antioch 45-30 in the finals.

Why Pay More Than Necessary When You Finance Your Next Car?
It's too bad, but most people do.

The reason: banks, finance companies, and most other lenders typically calculate interest in advance when you sign up for the loan. So, you pay interest on the entire amount you finance, regardless of how quickly you pay it back.

But with our revolutionary new Simple Interest Loan, interest is calculated daily and only on your outstanding balance. This means you can save significantly if you pre-pay or pay off the loan early.

Let us make your hard-earned money work harder. Ask us about our Simple Interest Loan.
